DETAILED ACTION

This application is a 371 (national stage application) of PCT/JP2004/017762.

Claims 1-5 & 6-9 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-5, drawn to a composition.

Group II, claim(s) 6-9, drawn to a method of using a composition.

2. As set forth in Rule 13.1 of the patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), “ The international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked to form a single general concept” Furthermore as stated in Rule 13.2 PCT, Unity of invention is considered fulfilled “where a group of inventions is claimed in one and the same international application,, the requirement of unity referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. “

The expression “special technical features” shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. The determination whether a group of inventions is so linked as to form a single general inventive concept.” The composition (aqueous suspension comprising of Loteprednol etabonate and at least one member selected from the group consisting of sorbic acid, salts thereof, and p-hydroxybenzoic acid) of claim 1 does not represent a contribution over the prior art, as it is disclosed, and therefore anticipated, in Guy (Us Patent 5,540,930). Guy discloses an aqueous suspension of LE (Loteprednol etabonate) suitable for therapeutic use in the eyes, ear and nose (summary of the invention second paragraph line 3) and formulation of the stable aqueous suspension of Loteprednol etabonate for ocular applications and other uses that contains unexpected tonicity agents such as 0.9%,Nacl, 0.1% EDTA etc... (Background of the invention column 2, sixth paragraph line 1-5) In the instant case, claim 1 does not contain a special technical feature and therefore, Group I lacks a special technical feature.

3. The inventions listed as Groups I & II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The technical feature common to Groups I & II is a composition of an aqueous suspension comprising of Loteprednol etabonate and at least on member selected form the group consisting of sorbic acid, salts thereof, and –hydroxybenzoic acid esters. Since the composition is known in the prior art, the claims are not so linked by a special technical feature within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.2 so as to form a single inventive concept and unity of invention is lacking. .

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

The election of the invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the election of species requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

6. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and the product claims are subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be considered for rejoinder. All claims directed to a nonelected process invention must require all the limitations of an allowable product claim for that process invention to be rejoined.

. In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103 and 112. Until all claims to the elected product are found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowable product claim will not be rejoined. See MPEP § 821.04(b). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution to require the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder. Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.
